Re: United States v. Christian Lora, 13 Cr. 811-9 (ALC)

Dear Judge Carter:

The parties respectfully write to request the adjournment of the violation of supervised release conference in this matter, which, the Probation Office has informed the parties, is currently scheduled for November 10, 2022. The violation specifications are based on a new federal arrest, under docket number 22 Mag. 8219, for which the parties are discussing a potential resolution. Subject to the Court's approval, the parties believe that the most appropriate course is to defer proceeding on the violation until the parties have had the opportunity to work to resolve the underlying charges. The Probation Office agrees with this approach.

Accordingly, the parties respectfully request that the violation proceeding be adjourned until the week of January 16 or later.

The application is granted. The violation of supervised release hearing is adjourned to 2-7-23 at 12 p.m.

So Ordered.

Andrew L. Carter, Jr.

Respectfully submitted,

DAMIAN WILLIAMS
United States Attorney
